Additional funds may be allocated to these calls should funds become available out of 2008 AAP implementation. Furthermore, and subject to the decision of the Budgetary Authority and subsequent Commission Decision, similar additional indicative amounts could be allocated to the above calls for proposals from the 2009 budget. In this case, if enough good proposals are selected under these calls for proposals to cover both 2008 and 2009 budgets, no call for proposals will in principle be published for the 2009 AAP, and therefore the next calls for proposals for these same activities would be published in 2010.
